Te Tari Puna Ora o Aotearoa / New Zealand Childcare Association (NZCA) is a dynamic bicultural organisation, committed to supporting high quality early childhood education through initial teacher education.

If you have a passion for te reo Māori me ngā tikanga Māori and a relevant Masters degree (or are degree qualified and undertaking studies to achieve a Masters qualification); and want to make a real difference to early childhood education in Aotearoa, we can offer you an exciting opportunity. As Pouako you will work as part of a collaborative team at the Hastings base and you will join a vibrant team of Pouako located throughout Aotearoa who share your commitment to a bicultural early childhood curriculum.

Put into practice your enthusiasm for teaching adults and utilise your skills, background and experience to inspire student teachers in their early childhood studies. With fluency in te reo Māori me ngā tikanga Māori you will motivate our students to reflect treaty principles in practice as well as taking a cultural leadership role at the teaching base.

We can offer you a competitive salary, generous study leave and professional development provisions, plus opportunities to be involved in research activities, while working in a supportive and collaborative team environment.
