

PRINCIPAL AQUINAS COLLEGE (I) TAURANGA

Applications are invited for the position of Principal at Aquinas College. Aquinas College is a Catholic, co-educational school located in the sunny Bay of Plenty. This high-performing and highly regarded College has a Decile 9 rating and caters for 770 Year 7-13 students.

The College was established in 2003. The foundation Principal – Brendan Schollum - will retire at the end of term one 2010, leaving a legacy of excellence across the realms of academia, sport, the performing arts and the school's special character.

If you are an exceptional educational leader and role model, who is excited about working within a culture of excellence, then the Aquinas Board of Trustees would like to hear from you.

Applicants must be Catholic and also able to demonstrate:

- A pro-active support for special character (tagged position)
- A proven record of effective, visionary leadership
- A dedication to high levels of student achievement
- Excellent communication skills and the ability to relate well to all sectors of the school community
- A clear understanding of the curriculum and a proven record of strategic planning
- The ability to inspire, motivate, empower and lead staff and students
- A passion to lead Aquinas through further phases of development into a highly successful future.

Applications close: January 19, 2010.

The position will commence at the start of Term 2, 2010.

An application pack, including the full job description, is available from:

The Appointment Secretary Mrs M Ramsbottom.

Tel: 07 5439032

Email: admin@aquinas.school.nz

Fax: 07 5432403

Post: 183 Pyes Pa Road, RD3, Pyes Pa
Tauranga 3173

For further information about Aquinas College, refer to: www.aquinas.school.nz

